

At the 2010 SADD National Conference in Orlando, Florida, SADD National will recognize the stellar work of some of its most outstanding contributors, chosen from nominations made by SADD representatives from across the country. SADD National will present awards in three categories: Activity of the Year, Advisor of the Year, and Chapter of the Year.

Nomination & Selection Process

- Nominations may be made by anyone involved in the SADD network. Both students and adults may submit nominations; self-nominations are also accepted.
- Nominations must be related to work supporting the SADD mission between April 1, 2009, and April 1, 2010.
- Complete nominations must include the Nomination Form, a completed Questionnaire, and at least two letters of recommendation. Nominations may also be supported by additional materials (e.g., testimonials, news reports, photographs, videos, and other written or visual material). Winners in each category may be asked to submit additional material to enhance the award presentation at the 2010 SADD National Conference.
- All nominations should be completed electronically and emailed to thelmondollar@sadd.org with "2010 SADD National Awards" in the subject line. Nominations (including all accompanying materials) must be received by close of business on Monday, May 3, 2010; late submissions will not be accepted. Letters of recommendation, newspaper clippings, and other hard copies of supporting materials should be scanned and attached to the e-mail as a picture file.
- Award recipients will be selected by a committee consisting of members chosen from the SADD National Student Leadership Council, the SADD State Coordinators, and the SADD National staff.
- SADD National reserves the right to recategorize any application if it appears otherwise ineligible in the category for which it was submitted.
- At the conclusion of the judging process, nominators will be contacted by e-mail with the status of their nomination. The winners will be announced at the 2010 SADD National Conference, scheduled for June 27-30, 2010, in Orlando, Florida.

2010 SADD National Awards

DESCRIPTION OF AWARDS

Activity of the Year

This award is for the best activity, campaign, program, or project by a chapter related to SADD's mission of promoting safe and healthy decision-making. Judges will consider the following qualities, among others: innovation, creativity, reach, effectiveness, and collaboration. In your nomination, provide a detailed written summary of the activity, including its name, goal or purpose, date(s) when the activity was held, target audience, number of people affected and how they were affected, any costs associated with its implementation, and any resulting media coverage. You may include a letter of support from a school administrator and/or partner as well as any other supporting materials.

Advisor of the Year

This award will be presented to the individual who is considered the most outstanding SADD advisor. Include the reasons why you think your advisor is the best, share his or her passion for SADD, and provide examples to support your nomination. Please be sure to include the full name, home address, telephone number, and e-mail address of the advisor and the length of time he or she has served as SADD advisor. Information about students in the SADD chapter should also be included.

Chapter of the Year

This award will be presented to the best, most effective SADD chapter. Tell us why you think your chapter is the best, and provide support materials to back up your nomination. On the nomination form, be sure to provide the names of your chapter and your school (and the address), your advisor's name and contact information, a brief history of your chapter, and details about its activities over the past school year, including why you think it should be recognized as SADD National's 2010 Chapter of the Year. You may include news clips, a letter of support from a school administrator and/or a parent, or other supporting materials.

2010 SADD National Awards AWARD RECOGNITIONS

First-place award winners in each category will receive a cash prize of $500. Second- and third-place winners in each category will receive $250 and $100 prizes, respectively.

The SADD National office will write and distribute pre-conference news releases to local and regional print and broadcast media acknowledging these honors for first-place winners.

Award recipients will be notified in June and will be honored at the 2010 SADD National Conference. Award recipients are not obligated to be present at the conference to receive their award.

First-, second-, and third-place winners in each category may be asked to submit additional information (including a video or other supporting documentation) to be used during the 2010 SADD National Conference. Additional information will be sent directly to award winners.

2010 SADD National Awards QUESTIONNAIRE

Please respond to the three items in the category of your nomination. Answers should be clear and succinct, and the use of specific examples and anecdotes is highly recommended.

ACTIVITY OF THE YEAR

1. Provide a detailed narrative explaining the activity. Describe the process of planning and implementing the activity and the specifics of what occurred during the activity.
2. What generated the idea for this activity?
3. What effect did the activity have on the school or the community? Did the activity receive media coverage? Did you receive any feedback from students or community members?

ADVISOR OF THE YEAR

1. Provide a detailed explanation why the advisor you are nominating is worthy of the SADD National Advisor of the Year award. Explain how he or she provides special effort, time, or other benefits to the SADD chapter, school, community, and students.
2. Explain, in detail, the qualities you believe an effective SADD chapter advisor possesses. How does your advisor exemplify those qualities?
3. Describe one situation that exemplifies the reasons he or she should be the SADD National Advisor of the Year.

CHAPTER OF THE YEAR

1. Provide a detailed description of the reasons why your SADD chapter is worthy of the SADD National Chapter of the Year award.
2. Explain, in detail, the qualities you think comprise an effective SADD chapter. How does your SADD chapter exemplify those qualities?
3. How did your SADD chapter succeed in serving the students in your school and/or community?
